

PROJECT PARTNERS

PROJECT COORDINATOR:

Housing Initiative for Eastern Europe (Initiative Wohnungswirtschaft Osteuropa Initiative Wohnungswirtschaft Osteuropa, IWO), Berlin, Germany — is an association of private and public partners who aim at a market-oriented and ecological development of the housing and construction economy in Eastern Europe. By the assemblage of different participants from various fields, IWO pursues a comprehensive approach. The co-ordination of the experiences and solutions offered by the participants regarding business management, technology, energy and financing, shall enable a sustainable and in each case repeatable know-how-transfer for all specific customers. It also shall contribute to the development and implementation of projects and programs within the housing and construction economy.

www.iwoev.org

PARTNERS:

The European Educational Center of the Housing and Real Estate Industry (Europäisches Bildungszentrum der Wohnungs- und Immobilienwirtschaft EBZ), Bochum, Germany — is one of the largest educational institutions specializing in training specialists in the field of housing and real estate.

The center was established in 1957 and currently offers a wide range of educational services, from professional education, advanced training to higher education, confirmed by a bachelor / master degree in housing. The EBZ consists of various educational and research institutions.

www.e-b-z.de

Non-profit-making association (fund) of the homeowners of private forms of ownership – the FUND “SPRIANNYA”, Kharkiv, Ukraine — non-profit-making association (fund), joining together condominiums and house-hold cooperatives of Kharkiv city and Kharkiv region. Pool of like-minded persons and innovators in the field of development of housing services, including the assistance in progressing of new managing forms of apartment blocks and implementation of energy-conservative, energy-efficient technologies in the housing sector. The Fund “SPRIANNYA” was founded in 1998, and today musters 72 members. The major purpose of the Fund today is creating of the information-resource centre ground for all the interested subjects of Kharkiv city and Kharkiv region for studying the best practices, including the practices of European level, for the promotion of management efficiency, cost minimization of upkeeping the apartment blocks and private housing, upon condition of the energy-efficient technologies implementation. The Fund “SPRIANNYA” is an active participant of the legislative initiatives.

The priority of the Fund activities – through the social activism of the Fund members, with the support of the qualified professionals to the end of purpose.

Public Union "Zaporizhzhya Resource Center "KRUG", Zaporizhzhya, Ukraine is a non-profit-making organization established in 2015. The main goal of the Union is to form consciousness of effective homeowner, who responsible for energy saving and energy efficiency in his residential building. To realize this goal the Union works in the following areas: creating condominiums as an effective homeowner and helping to develop a competitive environment in the management and maintenance of houses and adjacent areas, promoting energy efficient and energy saving measures in the housing stock, awareness-raising activities, cooperation with state and local authorities and the media.

<https://www.krug.zp.ua/>

Lviv NGO «Center of Local Government Studies» (CLGS), Lviv, Ukraine — is a non-governmental analytic organization, founded in 2007, with the aims of local government promotion and civil society in Ukraine development.

To achieve this, the organization on residential real estate management, local self-government and public relations, as well as municipal government is focused. The main activities of the organization are consulting, conducting trainings, thematic discussions, conferences, seminars, analytical researches and writing publications. The activities are mainly to the topics of energy saving in the housing, local public initiative development, the influence of society on making vital decisions strengthening devoted.

www.cdms.org.ua

Federal Foreign Office